Mr. Alvis, the young man's father, was Mr. Alvis, the young man's father, was in the back yard at the time of the occurrence, and heard the sound of the gun. Hardly a moment after he heard this sister scream, and then, he says, he realized at once that his son had killed himself. He did not enter the room, and has never looked on the face of his dead C. E. Lowrey, uncle of the young and brother of Mrs. Alvis, came man, and brother of Airs. Aivis, came into the back yard to see about making preparations for their contemplated removal. His nephew was standing in the hallway at the time, and they both exchanged cordial greetings.

Sleeping Minute Longer.

Because her husband insisted on sleeping "lint a minute longer" last evening while dinner was awaiting him, Mrs. Lill'an Wolfe, thirty-two years old of No. 155 West Twenty-eighth Street, swallowed an ounce of diluted carbolic acid in an effort to end her life. She was taken to New York Hospital, where it was said she would recover.

"When my husband came home he lay down and told me to call him for dinner at 7:30 P. M.," said Mrs. Wolfe. "I called him that hour, and he said, Let me sleep fifteen minutes longer."

cial from Savannah, Ga., to the Chronicle says:

Last night the house of J. E. Bennett, a prominent farmer, two and one-half miles from Screven, in Wayne county, was fired into by negroes and one of his nephews received a bullet in the crown of his hat. Sheriff Overstreet, with two bloodhounds, spent the night in the vicinity of the Bennett home and made an effort to catch the marauders, but falled. Hamp Bennett, of Jessup, has gone to his brother's house to-night. The home of Bennett is virtually in a state of slege. He has been warned that he is a "marked man," and his neighbors have been called upon to aid in protecting him. He has been advised by etters that he need not worry about his cotton, as it will soon not concern him cotton, as it will soon not concern him whether it is picked or not. Last night a wagon loaded with nerroes was driven to within a short distance of Mr. Bennett's home. The negroes dismounted and fired several volleys at the house, and the negroes withdrew. The house, and the negroes withdrew. The negroes have a grievance against Bennett for sending a negro preacher to the chain or sending a negro preacher to the chai gang. The negro pushed a young son of Bennett off a footlog and was prosecuted for it. Bennett was shot at a week ago by an unknown person.
